

"The stories are about how things were and how they have changed.

There are stories about the sharecropping system and the relationship between farmers and owners.

There is a desire for a better relationship with the planet.

Everywhere, stories emerged about how the relationship changed since the early 1970s."

LAWRENCE SIEGEL

SI DICE IN ITALIA

An unforgettable journey to Italy

SI DICE IN ITALIA

Travel to Italy for an unforgettable journey dedicated to the opera "Si dice in Italia" by the American composer Lawrence Siegel.

He wrote this masterpiece by collecting the stories of the people that he met through 40 years of travels in this beautiful country.

The artist reveals the true identity of the Italians in a sublime work, narrating the experience of the people that he interviewed.

The journey starts with...

ROME

You'll be absorbed between authenticity and ancient history! Visit a colourful market, meet some local iconic characters, choose the best groceries with an expert chef and join an exciting cooking class. You'll understand and embrace how modern culture is linked to the ancient Roman Civilisation. Discover Rome from a different angle!

MAREMMA

Maremma is a wild and gorgeous area in southern Tuscany. Discover the medieval villages of Capalbio and Magliano, and the fishing villages of Porto Ercole and Porto Santo Stefano. Here you will attend the very first debut of "Si Dice in Italia" in the beautiful Castagnoli Theatre in Scansano. A real unique experience!

You will live the opera by discovering local culture and traditions through authentic experiences in unique places.

Infinite surprises await in every corner, for the journey recounts many stories of daily life – from the past and the present.

SPOTLIGHT EXPERIENCE IN MAREMMA

Castagnoli Theatre
- in the medieval village of Scansano - is where you will witness the very first debut of the opera
"Si Dice in Italia".

It's a love letter to Italy and its people, written by Lawrence Siegel and directed by Dimitri Betti.
